AMERICAN MUSEUM.

THE American Museum of Literature and the Arts, will combine the solidity of a review with the lighter miscellany of a magazine; besides impartial reviews of important works and short notices of minor literary productions, the editor will embrace essays, tales, historiettes, poetry, literary and scientific intelligence, and translations from standard and periodical works in other languages, contributed by some of the ablest writers of the day.

The Magazine will also contain a series of reviews of such writers as have, by their talents, shed lustre upon American literature. The reviews will be accompanied by portraits of the authors, engraved on steel, by the best artists. The work will be beautifully printed, with new type, upon fine paper, and will make two volumes each year, of more than 500 pages each.

Agencies will be established in the periodical cities, and arrangements made to deliver the work free of postage. As the Museum is printed on a medium and a half sheet, the highest postage that can be charged to any part of the country, for one year, will be $1-05 cents. Persons desiring of acting as agents, will please apply post paid. Terms—$5 per annum, payable on the delivery of the first number, 5 copies $20.

RICHARDSON'S DICTIONARY OF THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE,

Parts 19 and 20, this day published.

There is not a work, either of general practical utility, or of philology in particular, that has so largely united the suffrages of the public press in its favor, as this Dictionary. Both in Europe and in America it has received the meed of general approbation. The compiler has assumed the principle of Home Tooke, that each word had originally but one meaning, and that all the result of combination, modification, or the mutability to which language itself is subject. In the plan of this Dictionary the Compiler has adopted the rule which Dr. Johnson originally proposed for his own government, viz: that of giving first the primitive meaning, then the consequential, and afterwards the metaphorical; accompanying his definitions by quotations, commencing with the earliest authorities and bringing them down to the most recent dates. Mr Richardson has performed his task with fidelity and skill, his researches have been most laborious as well as judicious, and he has bestowed, in this work a boon to literature greater than any that has been presented since the days of Johnson himself.

☞ The publication of this work which was suspended in consequence of the pressure upon the mercantile world is now resumed, and the work being stereotyped will be completed in a few weeks.

A BOY TAKEN BY A BEAR!

The following account from our correspondent at Linneus can be relied on as correct Linneus is in Washington County, about 100 miles east of this city and adjoins the town of Houlton

Correspondence of the Bangor Whig & Courier

Linneus, Me Nov 19, 1838

Mr. Editor. Presuming that your readers, like most others, are fond of the marvellous, especially when tinctured with truth, I hasten to lay before you the following occurrence, which took place in this town last evening About 7 o'clock in the evening Mr Isaac Saunders, son James, who is about eight years of age, was sent to the barn to feed the cattle, and while returning the fodder to the barn (the distance from the barn to the house is about 40 rods) had his attention arrested by the appearance of a huge black object directly ahead of him. He stood still for a moment, not knowing whether to advance or retreat. At length he concluded to go ahead, when the bear rose up on his hind legs, and put himself in an attitude to receive the youngster with his fore paws The boy perceiving the attitude of the bear, and his apparent determination to intercept his ground, gave a loud screech, and turned and ran towards the barn. At this, the bear started in pursuit, and came up with the boy, who was still screeching. Just as the men in the house, who had heard the alarm, were approaching the theatre of action, the bear seized the boy, with his fore paws, raised himself again upon his hind legs, and started with his prey with all possible dispatch for the woods. The men hotly pursued him for some three quarters of a mile, when the bear finding himself but a few feet ahead of his pursuers, turned around and stood face to face with them, when the men, each of whom was armed with an axe, made a motion to give him a gentle tap upon the head, but his left paw was ready for a fend-off, while he held the boy tightly with his right one The men finding it was useless to fight with axes, one of them started for the house after a gun, which he loaded with buck shot, and returned to the woods On his arrival at the scene of battle, the bear is attempting to turn and try leg bail again, and shot through the left side of his body, which brought him to the ground, and caused him to relinquish his hold of the boy, who scampered home more frightened than hurt, having received no other harm than a most unmerciful hugging. Mr Saunders took the bear to his house, skinned and dressed him, and I have just finished my supper, which was made partly of a portion of his flesh. The bear weighed when dressed 369 pounds, and is said to be the largest ever caught in this town.

For some time past, a number of persons have had depredations committed on their stock, by some wild animal or animals Sheep have been slaughtered repeatedly, and in one or two instances, swine, and even cows, have been attacked and killed. One man, Mr David Rollins, for instance, has lost two fine cows, and I have been compelled to drive my cattle into the barn for security.

River Closed Saturday and Sunday were very cold days, one of our oldest citizens says that he has never experienced so cold a day in [illegible] Sunday We understand the thermometer was 5 degrees above zero The river closed on Saturday morning, and the boys have been skating on the ice. Two vessels made the attempt on Saturday morning to get out of the river, but were stopped by the ice, and now lie near High Head. There are also several other vessels lying at Kennebunk, all of which will have to remain "in dolcemente vita," until the genial breath of a spring's sun shall give "Jack Frost" his "walking ticket" "Jack" laid his icy fingers a little earlier this season than last The river closed last year on the 26th of November.

Delaware—The Delaware State Journal expresses no doubt as to the election of a Whig U. S. Senator, as there will be a majority of Whig joint ballot in the Legislature It says the members elected in Sussex, are not Van Buren men They are and always have been Whigs, and as true and decided Whigs as any in the Union, and we venture to say, that they would resent, the imputation that would be offered to them if [illegible] Van Buren, or of a desire to support the administration by the election of a Van Buren Senator. We know the larger portion of them gentlemen personally, and can vouch for them as being as true and upright [illegible] in our State."

The Legislature of Delaware at its next session will be composed as follows Senate 6 Whigs, 3 Van Burenmen House, 14 Whigs, 7 Van Burenmen Whig majority in joint ballot 1, 9 [illegible] majority for Robinson for Congress [illegible]

Mr Fear. A few additional returns have been received from Michigan, which show a very large gain for the Whigs, but not sufficient to [illegible] the election of Mr. Wells, the Whig candidate in Genesee, [illegible]

The Young Man's Assistant in Efforts at Self Culture By Rev Jason Whitman Every young man, who is desirous of self improvement should be in possession of this book They will find it a valuable companion for them to peruse and re peruse during the continuance of the present long winter evenings, and if they take heed to the suggestions and advice there given, they will become happier men and better citizens

The work may be found at the bookstore of Mr E. F Duren.

Further from the Mormons. The account of a bloody butcher of thirty two Mormons, on Shoals Creek, is fully confirmed Two children were killed, we presume, by accident Considerable plunder such as beds, hats &c were taken from the slaughtered Not one of the assailants was killed or hurt.

About the time of the surrender, several Mormon houses were burnt in Charlton, and one Mormon who refused to leave, killed

At Far West, after the surrender, a Mormon had his brains dashed out, by a man who accused the Mormon of burning his house in Daviess.

The above is from the St Louis Gazette of the 11th inst The St Louis Republican of the 12th, corroborates the details and says the men who made the attack on the mormons were not attached to any division of the army Among them was at least one member of the Legislature. The Mormons had their families with them and to preserve their lives, the men separated from them and took refuge in a blacksmiths' shop Here they were murdered! It is said, that the Mormons had arms but it is a little singular that they should have used them so ineffectually as not to have touched one of the assailants.

ARRIVAL OF THE LIVERPOOL.

From the N Y Express of Friday.

At eight o'clock this morning, the long and anxiously looked for steam ship Liverpool, Capt Feyner, passed the Narrows in fine style, fired a gun, and passed swiftly up to the city, with colors flying, and in fine condition She came to anchor in the East river, and landed her passengers and letter bags. The Liverpool is sixteen days from Cork, having sailed on the 6th inst She left Liverpool on the 20th of October, and when 1000 miles on her passage it was found that the expansion pipe, owing to the engineer's neglect, did not work to perfection and she was consuming too much fuel, whereupon she put back to Cork, where she arrived Oct 27th, all well, and without the slightest accident The owners despatched a letter to the passengers, stating that if any of them wished to leave her, their passages would be paid and taken for the next packet from Liverpool John Van Buren and about fifteen others left the ship

On the 6th inst. the fuel being replenished, and every thing in order, she left with a large number of passengers, one of whom informs us that the steamer Royal William, from New York, went into Liverpool on the 5th, having been seen off Cork the night before. He says the Liverpool has performed to a charm, altho' they had very rough weather, with head seas and wind She worked to perfection nothing gave way—the vessel tight, strong, and staunch and passengers are all delighted. The ship had an abundance of fuel.

THOU ART NOT HERE

The long, long nights are coming on, the time for mirth and song
The gathering round the household hearth of all the happy throng,
The meeting place of parted friends, whose light hearts glad the year
And strip it of its loneliness and yet thou art not here

Again the winter fire illumes the scenes of other days,
And well remembered faces beam before its cheerful blaze,
It throws its wild and fitful gleams around the pictured walls,
And there, upon a vacant seat, in startling brightness falls

There is a tone in music gone, a star from out our sky,
That left us with thy gentle words, and with thy kindling eye,
And sadly youthful voices fall upon our aching ear,
Our lonely spot is desolate because thou art not here

Four weary years have fled away, since last that vacant chair
Was as a throne of joy to us, for thy glad form was there,
Those long and weary years have dimmed the freshness of our youth,
But tightened round our loving hearts, the early ties of truth

The sunny summer of our life hath lost its shining hue,
And sombre autumn clouds have veiled the morning's azure blue
But yet for thee the heart's young buds shall bloom 'mid winter drear,
That wither in their solitude, because thou art not here.

Come to us, brother, o'er the wave, its pure white crest of foam
Shall waft thee, like the wings of hope, back to thy native home,
The voices of familiar friends an answering unto thine
Shall whisper to thee through the winds, and lure thee o'er the brine.

The long, long nights are coming on, the time for mirth and song,
The gathering round the household hearth of all the happy throng,
The meeting place of parted friends, whose light hearts glad the year,
And strip it of its of loneliness and yet thou art not here.

LATER FROM CANADA

The Albany Evening Journal of Wednesday, contain the following:

Sackett's Harbor, Nov 18

The Steamer Oneda, just arrived, brings the following sad intelligence

On Friday the 16th inst the Patriots at Wind Mill Point were attacked by about 1000 British on land, 4 armed steamboats the British planted a heavy battery within 150 or 200 rods of the mill, and fired with such effect that their balls passed entirely through the stone buildings the fight lasted something more than an hour when the Patriots surrendered, to the number of about 90 the rest having been killed in the action or taken prisoners previously The prisoners were all taken to Kingston on board the armed steamboats

William Johnson, was taken yesterday, about 2 miles above Ogdensburgh, and is now in custody of the U S Marshal, Mr Garrow, on board the steamer Oneida. Mr Birge, the Patriot General, is also in custody of the Marshal the small steamer Paul Pry has been seized by the Government, and towed into Oneida

Ogdensburgh, Friday, Nov 16

Dear Sir I hasten to give you the latest news which is indeed melancholy. The Patriots have until to day, fairly held their own, but to-day at noon, the Cobourg and five other boats brought down 800 regular British troops, and some of the heaviest cannon in the Province. These added to 1000 militia, were too much for the Patriots They were surrounded by land, and the steam boats kept up a murderous fazing from the river The Patriots fought nobly but it was of no use they were driven back and scattered.

At sunset they held out flag of truce, which, though, displayed three times, the British did not regard, they had orders to "GIVE NO QUARTERS AND TAKE NO PRISONERS!" At this time two of the houses occupied by to Patriots are burning, and the British regulars around the Windmill looking on but not molested. There is no firing on either side

From all appearances the Patriots are totally routed and annihilated It is barely possible that some [illegible] have escaped, but probably not one will live to tell the tale.

The excitement here is tremendous; the utmost indignation prevails against the Patriot leaders and leaders. It is a solemn truth that there was but one General officer in the action Had it not been for such cowardly scoundrels as W[illegible] J[illegible] P[illegible], N[illegible], and several more such, this result would not have taken place Their lives are almost threatened by several of the most respectable citizens, and they [illegible] for leaving innocent and brave men where they [illegible]

[illegible] fighting at a time, the number killed and wounded [illegible] 500, [illegible] how true and faithful the [illegible] tell you that P[illegible] and a few more [illegible] forced to leave, [illegible] they were confident [illegible] would [illegible] and that [illegible]

there were thousands of men in county, bound by their oaths to assist them, and they would aid the cause And now they are all or nearly all MURDERED!

Respectfully yours,
J M DUTY

4 o'clock p m. Mr Joshua Woodruff has this moment arrived from Ogdensburgh, which place he left at noon yesterday He saw one man a Pole who escaped and who supposed himself to be the only one left alive The Patriots rushed out of the Mill at or soon after sunset, with three white flags, but they were all speared as they went out

The Mill was filled with British troops and the Pole who was [illegible] with two others, who had secreted themselves in the lower part of the Mill, mingled with the British troops, but his two companions were killed, he himself escaped by wearing the coat of Lt. Johnson who was killed on Tuesday

The Patriot force in the mill numbered 111 men, besides 11 wounded

It is supposed that Colonel Von Schultz a Pole, who commanded the Patriot forces, killed himself.

LATER STILL FROM PRESCOTT

Yesterday evening, the following despatch from the Hon Lt Dundas of the 83d regiment was received at Head Quarters

Prescott, Nov 16

Sir, I have to acquaint you, for the information of his Excellency the Commander of the Forces, that I came down here yesterday from Kingston with 4 companies of the 83d regiment two 18 pounders and a howitzer, and made up from the town to a position about 400 yards in rear the windmill, and adjoining houses occupied by the brigands.

They did not move out of their houses to oppose my advance The 18 pounders opened with good effect upon the stone building near the mill. Capt Sandom, with two gun-boats, to which he carried two 18 pounders, took up a position below the windmill, which he commanded, but not with much effect After cannonading these buildings for an hour or rather more, and observing the brigands to be quitting them and endeavoring to escape, I ordered the troops to advance, very little resistance was offered by the party occupying the mill, but a small fire was opposed to us from the adjoining stone building

It being dark before the troops got round these buildings and the brigands in the windmill having displayed a white flag, they were summoned to surrender themselves unconditionally, which they did Eighty six prisoners were immediately secured, and 10 others who were wounded were removed from the mill as soon as convenience could be found a large supply of arms 20 kegs of powder and 3 pieces of ordnance fell into our hands

Some of the brigands effected their escape from the buildings, when darkness came on, and hid themselves in the brush wood on the bank under the mill

I directed the militia, to scour the banks and several prisoners were secured, among others a Pole, calling himself Gen Van Sault, who, it is understood, was the principal leader All buildings adjoining the mill were destroyed, but the latter I directed to be occupied by a company of militia, and propose that it should continue to be so, or entirely demolished

I am happy to say the service was performed with the loss of one man only of the 83d regiment I have the honor to remain, Sir,

Your most obd't serv't,
H DUNDAS,
Lt Col 83d Reg't Commandant.

Capt Goldie, A D C., Montreal

The Court Martial, for the purpose of trying the rebels and brigands commences its sittings this day It consists of seven field officers and seven captains, all of the line, with Major General Clitherow as President Captain Muller, of the Royal Regiment has been appointed Judge Advocate, with Mr Solicitor General Stuart as his legal adviser. It is not expected that any thing will be done to-day, except formally constituting the Court, but the real business will probably commence to-morrow

From the N Y Express of Thursday.

LATER

Letters have been received in town this morning from Col Worth, giving an account of the proceedings on the frontier Col Worth says that the American citizens along the frontier are beginning to exhibit a strong feeling of regret for the misconduct of which their portion of the country has been the scene, and very many of them deny all knowledge of participation.

Much fear is entertained of retaliation from the other side, but Col Worth is confident that nothing of the kind will be done if the British authorities can prevent it His intercourse with them has been marked by great courtesy and good feeling

Extensive arrests were in progress Col W expected that he should be able to set off on the 17th for a visit to the intermediate towns between Ogdensburg and Sackett's Harbor, leaving Col Clarke with one company to cruise in the neighborhood of the former for a few days

The war fever in that region he says, is radically cured for the present, at all events

During the engagement of the 16th, he had his vessel stationed between the combatants and the American shore, to prevent any efforts that might be made to send over assistance to the invaders, or on the other hand, if they took to the water and were pursued, to prevent pursuers from infringing our neutrality

It was a painful situation in which he was placed to see his countrymen, guilty as they were, selling their lives so dearly, but his duty was plain, and would not shrink from it

The whole number that crossed over was about 250.

Besides Johnson, and Birge about a dozen others were arrested on the 16th, all principals in getting up the invasion

The frigate Independent, in which Lord Durham and family embarked for England, grounded going down the river, and leaked so badly, in consequence, that she had to put into Halifax to repair. R F Maidand, Esq. bearer of despatches to the British government from Sir John Colborne, arrived in town this morning, and will go out in the Great Western.

From the Oswego Herald, Nov. 19

We learn that the Patriots near Prescott surrendered on Friday night to the Loyal forces after desperate struggle of 24 hours' fighting. One hundred and fourteen were taken prisoners, in all taken by the British. Of the loss sustained by the Patriots in killed and wounded we have no account. [illegible] have escaped to the American side.

[illegible] the affair with the Patriots near Prescott, Lieut Johnson, of the 83d regiment [illegible] of the Grenville militia, 4 privates, and 3 men were killed. Lieut Col. Gowan, Capt Geo McDonnel, [illegible] Clarke, and [illegible] wounded

Twenty six Patriots are taken [illegible] the fort at Gananoque

Christian Religion. The following is the closing paragraph of the Will of Patrick Henry, "I have now disposed of all my property to my family; there is one thing more I wish I could give them and that is the christian religion If they had this and I had not given them one shilling, they would be rich, and if they had not that, and I had given them the whole world, they would be poor" This opinion of that celebrated man, may perhaps be called his death bed opinion, and is on that account alone of great value It seems to us that Patrick Henry made a successful effort to paraphrase (perhaps we should say, to answer the question propounded by the author of our holy religion, "What shall it profit a man, if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul?" OLMSTED'S PATENT STOVE.

THIS STOVE was invented and patented by Professor Olmsted of Yale College. It was originally designed for study chambers, but being found equally well adapted to family apartments, it came immediately into extensive use among the inhabitants of New Haven, and the demand for it here and elsewhere is rapidly increasing.
It is at present made chiefly of SHEET IRON, this material being esteemed on all accounts the the most eligible; but it may be constructed either wholly or in part of cast iron should that be preferred.
The chief peculiarity of this stove, consists of substituting for the open pipe usually employed to distribute the heat generated by anthracite coal, an apparatus called a RADIATOR, which though of comparatively small dimensions, has an effect in absorbing and distributing the heat produced by coal equal to that of a very long pipe. By this means, the unsightly appearance of a stove pipe, traversing the apartment, is avoided, while the saving of material greatly diminishes the expense. The Radiator consists of two concentric cylinders having a narrow space of half an inch to an inch between them, through which the heated current is made to circulate in its passage from the chamber of combustion to the chimney. The current is thus brought CLOSELY INTO CONTACT with the two contiguous surfaces, heating at once the outer and inner cylinder. The former sends it heat into the apartment by direct radiation; the latter being open at the top and bottom, causes a current of air to flow through it like the chimney of an Argand lamp. The air within being rarefied by heat, flows out in a continual current at the top, while the colder air of the apartment flows in at the bottom, and becomes heated in turn. This adds greatly to the effect, contributing more indeed towards heating an apartment, than the direct radiation from the surface, and equalizing the temperature in a remarkable degree.
The objects aimed at in the construction of this Stove are to be SIMPLE, so that domestics can easily manage it; to be quick kindled; to be capable of affording either a MILD or an INTENSE HEAT, according to the state of the weather, to preserve the air of the apartment PURE AND WHOLESOME, to avoid all inconveniences from DUST, and finally, to be CHEAP and ECONOMICAL.
It is confidently believed, that this stove fulfils as many of the conditions, as any one now invented, and to a degree attainable only by an inventor, like the present long and intimately acquainted with the laws of heat.
The CHAMBER STOVE is usually from 9 to 10 inches in diameter, and from 24 to 30 inches high. Its position is commonly on the hearth, or the usual place of the andirons. The fireplace being closed up, two pipes, one from the back of each cylinder, enters the wall thus formed, (or a sheet iron fireboard,) each pipe being furnished with a damper. This variety is adapted to student's rooms, offices, and particularly to NURSERIES, affording as it does, peculiar facilities for warming liquids, or medicinal preparations.
The PARLOR STOVE has two radiators, and is capable of warming the largest rooms in ordinary houses.
The HALL STOVE is adapted to situations where a communication is made with a distant flue by means of a long pipe, as in halls, stores, &c.
One ton of fine and half a ton of coarse coal, is an adequate supply for the chamber stove, for one season. Two tons is a full allowance for the parlor stove, when made of the usual dimensions.
To be had only at No. 8, Central Street.

DR. BRANDRETH'S GENUINE PILLS

Doctor Sangrado's system still Lives in the world, to kill, to kill!

THIS system does indeed live still, and is practised by the very men who laugh at Doctor Sangrado as a visionary fool. The immaculate Faculty!! Let this truth be impressed upon every mind that all pain and weakness proceed from the presence of morbid, stagnant and corrupt humors in the body by which the circulation of the blood is impeded, and that the only sensible method is to remove them from the stomach & bowels, then take

Brandreth's Pills, concocted forth
From the pure products of the earth;
They own no alter said alloy,
They often save, but ne'er destroy!

BLEEDING ALWAYS IMPROPER,

"For the life of the flesh is in the blood," Levitcus, chapter xvii. v 11 When the properties of BRANDRETH'S VEGETABLE UNIVERSAL PILLS shall have been appreciated bleeding will no longer be thought of as a remedy for diseases, for in violent inflammations, eight or ten of them will take, in the course of twenty-four hours, more of the impure humors from the body, by the stomach and bowels, than bleeding to the extent of forty ounces could pass by force alone and it should be remembered that the Pills remove ONLY those parts from the blood which were the cause of inflammation, whereas bleeding removes the essential parts also How great the prostration of all the corporeal powers after a copious bleeding! On the contrary, what agility and strength is felt after a dose of this medicine, the body is indeed lightened of a load Nothing is equal to ridding the vitiated humors with a vegetable medicine of this kind which 84 years have proved never to do injury, but always good. Is the pulse too high? A dose of these Pills will bring it down. Is it too low? the same means will increase it to a proper standard Is it tremulous, showing nervous excitement? the Pills, by so doing the system will allay it.

Thousands of the most respectable citizens of the United States will be referred to with pleasure by Dr B who have for many years been in the habit of being bled as often as four times in a year, and whose constitutions, in consequence, were becoming weaker and weaker, but who, since they have made use of these Pills, have never lost a drop of their precious blood When any of their old symptoms appeared, instead of running to a Doctor and having a vein opened, they have swallowed six or eight Pills, which soon removed the vitiated humors that were impeding the blood in its circulation Those sensible people simply by the use of these invaluable Pills, are increasing every day the powers both of body and mind, which, by the practice of bleeding, were both becoming dreadfully impaired.

The following cases of cure by the use of Brandreth's Pills, alone, are submitted with respect, to the unprejudiced portion of the Boston public.

ASTHMA CURED The following extraordinary case of Asthma, which is authenticated by seventeen respectable and well known inhabitants of Greenwich Ct, deserves, by all persons a careful perusal The most prejudiced must own that evidence is on the side of these Pills, which, by the cures they are daily making show there is no necessity for any other medicine.

This is to certify that Thomas S. Brown of Greenwich, Ct was taken with a cold, numb feeling, on the 13th of June last He began to cough and raise phlegm and in the course of twenty four hours about two quarts of thick white jelly was expectorated. Three physicians in Stamford Greenwich, and Sawpits, pronounced it a nervous humid spasmodic Asthma and after prescribing for some time to no effect, the three consulted together, and finally declared that they could do him no good, it would and must result in consumption, and death would ensue, and that in a very short time. The pain was excessive in all parts of his body, and the difficulty in breathing was such as almost to cause strangulation He was reduced to a mere skeleton, and finally gave himself up to death After being in this miserable state nearly two months he saw an advertisement of Dr Brandreth's Vegetable Universal Pills, and immediately sent by Capt J Waring of Greenwich, for a box, and found relief in the course of a few days, which encouraged him to persevere, and now having taken them for about four months according to the direction, is entirely recovered, and so far as we can judge, in consequence of taking the above Pills, which we have also used in our families, and have found them invaluable

Signed Greenwich, 22d Feb 1836,

James R Meas Daniel S Betts, John H Reynold A Palmer, Rev. R Palmer, J. R Palmer, H Brewsley, S. Jessup, James Moore, Hannah Hitchcock J Mean, Thos Bertram, Isaac Olmstead, P. V T. Jessup, Stephen Waring John Limbry

Certificate of John Goulden, who has known the above pills forty years:

I hereby certify, that I have known Brandreth's Vegetable Universal Pill for upwards of forty years they were used by my family connections, in the county of Dorset, England, since the year 1796, many of whom they cured of old standing complaints JOSEPH GOULDEN.
Bridgeport, Feb. 18 1836

Certificate of cure of CHOLICS, FITS &c. &c From a BOSTONIAN, whose address is at the foot

[TRUE COPY]

To Dr Benj Brandreth.

My dear Sir, I write a few lines to inform you that I have been making use of your Vegetable Universal Pills. I have been afflicted with a complaint supposed to be caused by PAINT I was subject to a great cough, and my whole system attended with frequent pain and severe cholics, for the year, I have also been subject to fits, which would seize me in the night; and when I have come to myself, I have been as weak as a child I am ready to state the facts more particularly, and how the medicine acted upon me, at my residence No 17 Sudbury street, to any one who wishes to inquire

I feel the medicine has been of very great service and that the diseases under which I laboured have been by it ENTIRELY REMOVED, for which I shall ever feel grateful to Providence and to you.

Believe me to remain
Very respectfully,
JOHN LUMMUS,
Boston 17 Sudbury street
